

Recipe for your North Star

1. List the elements or 'ingredients' you have found for each circle so far:

Top 5 of what you are good at 1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

Top 5 of what you love
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

Top 5 of what the world needs
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

2. Mix them together in different combinations or mind map where they connect to see which patterns are formed.
3. What are the potential job titles these ideas could have and in what industries? Feel free to make some up with the words that best describe your pattern!
4. Now search job boards and companies for these titles or keywords.
Did you find some positions advertised?

Yes? Which of these positions would you apply for as they are OR what needs to be added to make them a better fit for your North Star?

No? Then you have two entrepreneurial possibilities from here:

- Prepare a proposal to show that you are the answer the company needs to the problem for which they have not yet created a solution.
- Start a new business venture to address the need - write your business plan.

We know that these can be very challenging questions to answer. Please feel free to email us at info@careerinyoursuitcase.com if you get stuck answering these questions.
